WHEREAS upon the late Irregular Disbanding of the Forces, divers Soldiers carried away the Arms belonging to their respective Regiments, and have since Lost or Imbezled the same; We do hereby Direct and Require all Persons to whose hands the said Arms or any of them are come, or with whom they now remain, forthwith to Re-deliver them to the said Soldiers or their Officers upon Demand, and in Default thereof, forthwith to bring them to the Officers of the Ordnance now attending at Uxbridge, Hounslow, or the Tower of London; in order to the returning the said Arms into the Stores of the Ordnance. Given at St. James's the One and twentieth Day of December, 1688.

W. H. Prince de Orange.

By His Highness's Command,

C. Huygens.

In the Savoy: Printed by Edward Jones, MDCLXXXVIII.